

What do we do?

Partners in Parenting provides a community group for parents and their children so they can learn, have fun, share joys and challenges, and nurture one another.

What is a village?

A connected community of caring adults who support us in nurturing our relationships with our children.

"It takes a village to raise a child."
African Proverb

A Village is Built One Relationship at a Time.

The benefits of having a village are:

- Increased confidence, competence, and enjoyment in parenting
- Increased social connections
- Improved parental mental health and well-being
- Improved parent and child interactions
- Enhanced positive social emotional behavior and development of children

Community support can make the job of parenting less frustrating and more rewarding!

Human relationships are primary in all living. When the gusty winds blow and shake our lives, if we know that people care about us, we may bend with the wind...but we won't break.
